ABOUT THIS HOME

Set dramatically along the shores of Casa de Campo, Villa Farallón is an uncompromising 13-bed, 20-bath architectural masterpiece designed as a deeply personal coastal sanctuary. Built across two levels with reinforced concrete, steel walls, and a poured concrete roof, the estate pairs absolute structural solidity with refined materiality—featuring marble walls, natural stone flooring, custom oak doors, and impact-resistant glass framing endless azure horizons. Designed for both grand entertaining and elite privacy, the main residence hosts six guest suites, complemented by a private four-suite guest house and an expansive 4,000 sq ft master retreat complete with its own spa, gym, and ocean-view office. Outdoors, a sun-dappled pool and open-air dining pavilions merge seamlessly with the salt-laced seaside splendor, offering a lifestyle of unrivaled discretion and luxury.
